Panquake Community Grieves Loss of Beloved Team Member Eynelys Garcia, Appeals For Support For Her Family

Next generation social media platform PANQUAKE is sad to announce the loss of their much-loved Relationship Manager and Talk Liberation Digital Coordinator Eynelys Garcia, in a hit-and-run accident in California last Thursday.

Tributes to Eynelys's loving personality, positivity, enthusiasm and warmth have been flowing across social media and among her colleagues.

Eynelys (pronounced Annelise) was known for her angelic and positive attitude and touched each person who knew and loved her.

Upon joining the Panquake Digital Media Team, Eynelys boosted the project leading to record numbers in viewership and subscriber counts. Talk Liberation host, Taylor Hudak, said "Eynelys was the type of person that when she called you in for a work meeting, you wanted to attend. She was the brightest light."

Panquake's Chief Product Officer Suzie Dawson shared the last voice memo and message she received from Eynelys, which demonstrated her beautiful personality.

Eynelys was the sole provider and caregiver for her mother, who is battling cancer, and her younger sister, who is severely autistic (non-verbal). Her unexpected passing is both emotionally and financially devastating for them.

The family has established a GoFundMe page and PANQUAKE is appealing to all supporters in our community to share the link to the page and if able, to donate to support this family in their time of profound need.

Eynelys was irreplaceable, as a friend and colleague, and things will never be quite the same without her. PANQUAKE staff extend their sincere condolences to her family and all who are so acutely feeling this tragic loss.

BACKGROUND ON PANQUAKE:

Barely more than half a year since PANQUAKE presented the groundbreaking concept of a crowd-funded social media application where the users are the customers – not the product – PANQUAKE’s build has continually accelerated and the BETA v1.0 release is in sight.

Members of the public have flocked to apply to become PANQUAKE BETA users and the first batches of approvals of vetted applicants have been dispatched to those users.
